CONCEPT3D

Website Accessibility Checklist

Web Pages
☐ Each web page has a unique page title.
☐ Color alone is not used to convey action.
☐ There is a distinct contrast between text and background colors.
☐ Page content is organized with section headers and semantic HTML.
☐ Lists formatted properly and with headings.
☐ Content does not have time restrictions.
☐ Web pages can be crawled by screen-readers.

Navigation
☐ All web pages have the same header nav.
☐ Your website has breadcrumb navigation.
☐ Users have access to a clear site map.
☐ All parts of the site are accessible through keyboard navigation.
☐ Dropdown functionality is accessible with keyboards.
☐ There are no keyboard traps or dead ends.
☐ Users can access "skip to content" feature.

Text
☐ Text can be manually magnified by 200%.
☐ Small text has a contrast ratio of at least 4.5:1.
☐ Large text has a contrast ratio of at least 3:1.

Images
☐ Images have desciptive alt-text.
☐ Images with text are not used.
☐ Tables have alt-text describing the contents or the data.

Video & Media
☐ All media have a text description and transcription available.
☐ Description contains a way to view or access the written transcripts.
☐ All videos (including live) have captions.
☐ On-page media does not have auto-play.
☐ Media can be stopped, paused, or muted.

Animations
☐ Content does not flash 3+ times / second.
☐ Users can stop content from blinking or flashing escessively.

Additional Variables
☐ Content is accessible in multiple ways without a user losing information.
☐ Content & instructions are not limited to one sense.
☐ Link text is clear and actionable, rather than vague or the link itself.
☐ Your site is accessible by all browsers.
☐ You have a documented web accessibility policy.
☐ Your accessibility policy is linked on your site.
☐ Users have a way to report accessibility issues with your website.

We work to make Concept3D products and solutions accessible to the largest possible audience including users of varied abilities. Learn more about our commitment to accessibility.

Disclaimer: This website accessibility checklist is intended for informational purposes only and is not a substitute for professional advice. We recommend working with your own website team and other experts on any website accessibility initiatives to ensure compliance with all legal requirements.